(b) Planning Committee, 14 June 2022 (Appendix C)

7. Wynhill Re-development

To receive the notes from the meeting held on 27 April 2022 with representatives of the Rugby Club and to consider the following requests:

(a) To consider a building condition survey for the Pavilion to include life space of the structure and immediate concerns for repair

(b) To consider funding an extension to the current car park to alleviate the impact on residents as an immediate action

(c) To consider leading on the procurement and funding of the building recently granted planning permission to include the extra changing facilities (phase 1 and 2)

8. Councillor Motion

Bingham Town Council is committed to providing improved parking facilities for all of Bingham residents. We are mindful that there are a number of options which remain open to Council to explore on how this facility might best be provided. It would be a mistake to restrict our options before all have been fully explored.
